

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

— Empowerment Journal Glossary —

Acceptance (noun) A feeling that you are received and embraced as a part of a group or community.

Anxiety (noun) A feeling of worry or nervousness about a future event or something that is uncertain at the time.

Awe (noun) A feeling of deep respect mixed with wonder.

Awesome (adjective) Inspiring deep respect, appreciation, fear, or wonder.

Believe (verb) To accept something as true. To have faith in the dependability of something or someone.

Commitment (noun) A feeling of dedication or obligation to a cause, activity, person, group, or community.

Distraction (noun) A feeling that prevents someone from giving full attention to something.

Empowerment (noun) The process of becoming stronger and more confident, especially in controlling one's life and claiming one's rights.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Encouragement (noun) A feeling of support, confidence, or hope.

Enthusiasm (noun) An energized feeling of enjoyment and interest.

Fear (noun) An uncomfortable feeling caused by a belief that danger is likely to cause physical or emotional pain.

GREAT Goal (noun) The object of a person's effort and focus created using a specific planning system. GREAT goals have 5 parts. The goal's name; the reason for the goal; the efforts required; your accountability partners; and time for success.

Grit (noun) A mixture of passion and perseverance for long-term goals.

Heal (noun) 1. To become healthy again. 2. To correct a wrong.

Interest (noun) A feeling of wanting to know or learn about something.

Involvement (noun) A feeling of being a part of or participating in an activity, group, or community.

Joy (noun) A feeling of content happiness.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Kindness (noun) A feeling that causes a person to act in a friendly, generous, and considerate way toward others.

Motivation (noun) A feeling of wanting to know or learn about something.

Optimism (noun) A feeling of hopefulness and confidence about the future or the success of something.

Positive (adjective) Having constructive or optimistic characteristics.

Potential (noun) The ability to become or develop into something in the future.

Preparation (noun) The process of getting ready for an event.

Purpose (noun) 1. The reason that something is done or has been created. 2. A person's feeling of determination.

Purposeful Practice (noun) Repeated exercises or actions that are focused on building a specific skill or content knowledge.

Relaxation (noun) A restful state that is free from tension and anxiety.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Support (verb) 1. To give help. 2. To be actively interested in the success of a person, group, or community.

Surprise (noun) An immediate feeling of mild shock caused by something unexpected.

Trust (noun) A feeling that you can rely on or believe something or someone.

Truth (noun) The quality of being factual and real.

Unique (adjective) 1. Being the only one of its kind; unlike anything else. 2. Remarkable, special, or unusual.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Acceptance (noun)

A feeling that you are received and embraced as a part of a group or community.

I felt the acceptance of my teammates after the first day of practice.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Anxiety (noun)

A feeling of worry or nervousness about a future event or something that is uncertain at the time.

I don't like the anxiety that I feel when I'm not prepared for a quiz.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Awe
(noun)

A feeling of deep respect mixed with wonder.

I felt a sense of awe as I watched the thunderstorm roll through my neighborhood.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Awesome (adjective)

Inspiring deep respect, appreciation, or wonder.

The band concert was an awesome experience.
I felt a deep appreciation for the talent and dedication of the musicians.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Believe (verb)

To accept something as true.
To have faith in the dependability of something or someone.

I believe that most people in my community are kind and that they care about the well-being of students.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Commitment (noun)

A feeling of dedication or obligation to a cause, activity, person, group, or community.

My commitment to academic success can be seen in my focus and hard work.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Distraction (noun)

A feeling that prevents someone from giving full attention to something.

I know my phone is a cause of distraction for me, so I turn off my notifications while I'm studying.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Empowerment

(noun)

The process of becoming stronger and more confident, especially in controlling one's life and claiming one's rights.

Mr. Hart is teaching us that empowerment is important because every student can work to make our school community a stronger and more positive place to live.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Encouragement

(noun)

A feeling of support, confidence, or hope.

I felt encouragement from my teacher, which helped me stay motivated and focused on doing my very best.

VARSIITY

BRANDS™

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Enthusiasm

(noun)

An energized feeling of enjoyment and interest.

Everyone can see my enthusiasm for art because of the time and focus I give to my artwork.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Fear (noun)

An uncomfortable feeling caused by a belief that danger is likely to cause physical or emotional pain.

My fear of public speaking makes it challenging to do class presentations.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

GREAT Goal (noun)

The object of a person's effort and focus created using a specific planning system.

GREAT goals have 5 parts —
(1) the goal's name; (2) the rason for the goal;
(3) the efforts required; (4) your accountability partners; and (5) time for success.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Grit (noun)

A mixture of passion and perseverance for long-term goals.

Learning from home is a challenge, but my grit helps me stay focused and determined to do the best I can.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Heal (noun)

1. To become healthy again.
2. To correct a wrong.

I will work to help our country heal from the impact of the coronavirus pandemic.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Interest

(noun)

A feeling of wanting to know or learn about something.

My interest in medical technology helps me stay focused in science class.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Involvement (noun)

A feeling of being a part of or participating in an activity, group, or community.

I want my involvement in student government to help empower my friends and classmates.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Joy
(noun)

A feeling of content happiness.

I used to take spending time with my classmates for granted. Now it brings me joy.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Kindness

(noun)

A feeling that causes a person to act in a friendly, generous, and considerate way toward others.

It's important for us all to show as much kindness as we can to our friends, family, and classmates.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Motivation

(noun)

A feeling of wanting to know or learn about something.

Personal health and disease prevention is my motivation to be physically active every day.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Optimism

(noun)

A feeling of hopefulness and confidence about the future or the success of something.

I'm looking forward to this school year with optimism and will focus on being the best student I can be.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Positive (adjective)

Having constructive or optimistic characteristics.

My positive attitude is a choice that I make every day.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Potential

(noun)

The ability to become or develop into something in the future.

I have the potential to change the world and make it better.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Preparation (noun)

The process of getting ready for an event.

My preparation for tomorrow's quiz will help me feel less anxious.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Purpose (noun)

1. The reason that something is done or has been created.
2. A person's feeling of determination.

A part of my purpose in life is to help my friends and family feel empowered and optimistic.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Purposeful Practice

(noun)

Repeated exercises or actions that are focused on building a specific skill or content knowledge.

Learning how to cook like a professional chef takes focus and purposeful practice.

Go Be Great!

Academic Language

Relaxation

(noun)

A restful state that is free from tension and anxiety.

I felt complete relaxation while I was listening to music through my headphones.

BELIEVE IN YOU

Academic Language

Support (verb)

1. To give help.
2. To be actively interested in the success of a person, group, or community.

I am here to support my friends and classmates as they work every day to get better.

BELIEVE IN YOU

Academic Language

Surprise

(noun)

An immediate feeling of mild shock caused by something unexpected.

Seeing my friends at the park was a surprise, and I was happy and grateful that they were there.

BELIEVE IN YOU

Academic Language

Trust

(noun)

A feeling that you can rely on or believe something or someone.

I trust my teachers to do their best to help me learn.

BELIEVE IN YOU

Academic Language

Truth

(noun)

The quality of being factual and real.

I can write the truth about how I feel in my journal because it's a safe place for me to express myself.

BELIEVE IN YOU

Academic Language

Unique (adjective)

1. Being the only one of its kind; unlike anything else.
2. Remarkable, special, or unusual.

I am a unique person with something great to share with the world.